

Competencies of Skills

Mastery: The independent and spontaneous application of learning to new contexts
Above		Reading		Writing		Listening		Speaking
 Age Related Expectations Working Towards 	R1	I can use knowledge of language to work out meaning.	W1	I can accurately spell and use punctuation.	L1	I can actively listen to work out meaning.	S1	I can accurately use pronunciation and intonation.
	R2	I can identify main points, details and opinions.	W2	I can extend sentences through conjunctions.	L2	I can identify main points, details and opinions.	S2	I can speak fluently and respond spontaneously.
	R3	I can recognise actions and events described in the past, present and future tense.	W3	I can describe actions and events in the past, present and future.	L3	I can recognise actions and events described in the past, present and future tense.	S3	I can talk about events described in the past, present and future tense.
	R4	I can recognise a range of vocabulary across different topics.	W4	I can develop a piece of writing about a theme, using a range of vocabulary across different topics and for different audiences.	L4	I can recognise a range of vocabulary across different topics and for different audiences.	S4	I can use a range of vocabulary across different topics and for different audiences.
	R5	I can accurately translate into English.	W5	I can accurately translate from English.	L5	I can understand language spoken at normal speed.	S5	I can develop what I say with opinion, reasons and questions.
	R6	I can understand written questions in target language.	W6	I can structure a piece of writing.			S6	I can use language repair strategies.
I can develop my awareness and understanding of the countries and cultures that speak the target language.								