Park Community School's catering team are looking for a talented baker / cake maker who has a real passion for baking and cake decoration and wants to progress their career to the next level.

Responsibilities will include:

- Baking and decorating our branded cakes and baked goods in line with set standards.
- Being our main Baker/ Cake Maker for our external business, Tearooms at the Coach House.
- Ensuring that all produce fits in line of our set standards, and that presentation of baked goods and cakes is to the highest quality.
- With our reputation for award winning fabulous food, we always put our customers first. As our Baker/ Cake Maker, we expect you to do the same. By helping to develop the Tearooms offering and introducing new exciting baked products to our line of existing delights.
- Helping to grow our external businesses by working with the senior chef team to develop the commercial offer, helping to keep our brand on theme and modern.

This role will take place during a quieter period within our busy main kitchen site within the school – for example, 3pm to 9pm (exact hours to be discussed with candidate).

A passion for food is vital and great customer service is essential. Good communication skills throughout our customer journey are needed to ensure communication between multi-site teams. Excellent patisserie skills are required, with a proven background and qualifications to match. You will have an eye for the finer details and finishing touches, all a must for this creative role.

Closing date: 29 April 2024
